

CELI PRESENTS emPOWER 22

Join us for the third annual gathering of leaders in the clean energy industry

June 25th, 2022

In-person & virtual
8:30 AM - 5:00 PM CT

Adaptive Leadership

Hear from CELlons on how they are stepping into leadership moments across the fields and industry verticals.

Energy Justice

Challenge yourself and each other about continuing to learn about energy justice. We are learning how to be more than the sum of our parts to move the needle on equity outcomes and jointly build an energy system guided by the energy justice principles.

Community Building

Meet CELlons, current Fellows, and community members to connect, build relationships, and find new areas of interest to apply your talents.

About emPOWER22

emPOWER22 is an hybrid day-long conference to leverage the talent, leadership, and knowledge of current and past fellows breaking through silos with the clean energy industry.

Join us and your peers to discuss, share, and learn from each other. Attendees should be prepared to feel challenged, inspired and motivated to tackle multifaceted issues in a changing energy landscape!

AGENDA

The agenda will connect thought leaders, fellows, and alumni through a variety of sessions and networking opportunities, such as:

- Global perspective on adaptive leadership
- New generation of leadership
- Intersection of energy justice and clean energy
